Evening dinner

An evening dinner will be held on Wednesday 26 November at the town hall, from 7.00 p.m. Participants will be taken on a tour through the monumental town hall and afterwards can attend a reception and buffet dinner. A dinner registration fee is 50 euro. For ITM staff, ITM doctoral students and master students in Public Health and Disease control from ULBrussels and ITM Antwerp the dinner registration fee is 25 euro.

Miscellaneous

Participants are advised to check the validity of their passport and the visa requirements. A letter of invitation can be obtained from the colloquium secretariat upon request but is not a commitment for the payment of any expenses.

The Colloquium organisers are not responsible for any loss, accident or injury that may occur during the meeting. Participants are advised to obtain appropriate travel and health insurance. Participants with an acute health problem can rely on the dispensary of the ITM for medical assistance.

In November, the average temperature in Belgium can be as low as 0°C, with frequent showers. The ITM is located at 5 to 10 minutes of Antwerp's historical centre and main shopping area.

Accommodation

Participants should book and pay their own travel and board. Hotel accommodation (see list below) is also at your own expense, unless arranged otherwise with the ITM.
