Privacy information for job applicants

We only request and process personal data of yours that are relevant to the vacancy for which you are applying. Your details will be treated confidentially and may only be consulted by ITM Human Resources and the persons directly involved in the selection and recruitment for the vacancy.

It may also be possible that we call in a recruitment or selection agency for certain vacancies. In this case, we will assure necessary arrangements on data confidentiality with them.

We do not include your CV or other personal data in a recruitment reserve and we destroy your data no later than 1 year after the vacancy expires.

You always have the right to access or destroy your file and the data about you that we process. If you have any questions, contact vacatures@itg.be or informatieveiligheid@itg.be.
